I would like to thank Constance Vigilance and her colleagues at the Commonwealth Secretariat heartily for agreeing to undertake this project. I would also like to thank Drs Mahendra Reddy, Happy Siphambe and Roli Degazon-Johnson for responding so readily to the invitation to contribute to the volume. The participants at a seminar held in Barbados in May 2007 made very useful contributions, which have enhanced the quality of the articles. The anonymous reviewer made valuable suggestions on the general thrust of the project. I would like to thank Constance and Guy Bentham from the Secretariat for their patience and suggestions for improving the volume.
